Madison Area All City Men's Team

Jim Grady Bowler of the Year

JIM GRADY BOWLER OF THE YEAR / ALL CITY TEAM

Derek Eoff

Derek Eoff continued his Masters dominance in the 2017-18 season, taking home his fifth title in six attempts after leading qualifying with a 1546 six game total (257 average) - including an 815 opening block. In the Open Championships, he was second in Team (782), fourth in Doubles with 1427 (741), and third in All Events (2168).

He earned his eighth career Madison Area Scratch Tour title at Ten Pin Alley, a tournament with a different lane pattern on alternating lanes. He shot 800 in the final three head to head matches. He made five of seven cuts over the season, including a second place finish at Leisure Lanes and at Rock River lanes, and he led qualifying in the Year End Championship, finishing third.

Eoff led the Bullseye Masters league in average with 229. He had two 300 games and two 800 series in local league and tournament play.

Willie Feltz

Willie Feltz was the Madison Area Open Championships All Events Titlist this season, with a 2212. He shot 747 with his team for the fifth highest scratch score. He averaged 227 over 293 league games this season, with a high of 231 in the Friday 3-Man at Bowl-A-Vard. He bowled five perfect games across all three of his leagues, and posted four 800 series.

Matt Krueger

Matt Krueger was the fourth highest average in the Bullseye Masters with 214, and third high association composite average at 232. He was 18th in singles at the Wisconsin State Tournament with 769. His team earned ninth place at USBC Open Championships. He cashed for sixth place at the Madison Area Masters. He rolled two 300 games and four 800 series in league play.

Cody Ramsden

Cody Ramsden placed fourth in All Events of the Madison Area Open Championships with 2149. He was third in average in the Bullseye Masters league with 216, sixth high association individual average with 238, and second high association composite average of 233. On the Madison Area Scratch Tour, Ramsden made four of nine cuts and was sixth in average.

Jay Heinzelman

Jay Heinzelman finished fifth in the Madison Area Masters, qualifying fourth with a 238 average. He made six of nine Madison Area Scratch Tour cuts, and was third in average with 220. He notched his ninth career MAST title at Spartan Bowl, and also posted a second place finish at Prairie Lanes. He had the second highest average in the Bullseye Masters with 220. His team placed 25th at the USBC Open Championships.

Madison Area All City Women's Team

Marge Pursell Bowler of the Year
