Madison Area Stars of the Future

Keala Loya

Keala approaches everything she does with a drive to do her best and improve.

She is a participant in many arts programs through school, including Solo and Ensemble and the One Act Theatre.

She is also a member of the competitive club Future Problem Solvers.

She is described as a genuine individual, one who finds the positive in everything. These qualities, and her motivated approach to challenges define her as an inspiration to others.

Michael Powley

Michael is lauded as a leader, a motivator, and an ambassador.

His bowling credentials are excellent, as he made the Association All Area Youth Team for the third consecutive year. Off the lanes, Michael has been an outstanding student.

He is four year honor roll, and National Honor Society in his senior year. Michael has volunteered extensively in the community.

His attitude and work ethic have helped him get where he is today, and he "will shine as a leader no matter what I am participating in, and I hope I will be able to inspire others".

A Madison Area USBC Star of the Future is awarded to a male and female youth bowler who distinguish themselves through their exemplary character and sportsmanship, and contributions to the sport of bowling. These individuals are often prominent in leadership roles and inspirational to others by their volunteer work and community service, sports and activities participation, and bowling achievements

Madison Area Hall of Fame
