CHARLES L. 'CHUCK' JOHNSTON

January 3, 1936 -
December 9, 2024

Chuck was inducted into the Madison Bowling Hall of Fame in 1993 with Bun Duve, Dick Pedracine, Bob Ruhland, and Darold Meisel.

He bowled in the areas toughest leagues over four decades, setting several game and series records with his Nakoma Lanes Classic League team. He authored a rare (for the era) 807 series in 1969. In 2018, he reached 50 years of participation in the USBC Open Championships.

2024 HALL OF FAME NOMINEES

Six new Hall of Fame nominees join the list of eligible candidates for induction consideration, pending application to the Hall.

Five are nominated for Distinguished Performance, including brothers Mike and Brian Hoffman, Theresa Wells, Doug Leikness, and the late Kurt Davids.

Don Aslakson joins the list of nominees in the Meritorious Service category.

STAR OF THE FUTURE NOMINATIONS

This award recognizes a youth bowler for what they are doing to give back to or otherwise demonstrate a positive influence in their community.

This award considers the character of the youth bowler. Youth bowlers of all ages can be nominated.

This award comes with a $1,000.00 SMART scholarship.

Do you know a youth bowler of good character?

Star of the Future Nomination Form

Anyone can use this form to submit a nomination for Star of the Future. The form will be forwarded to the youth bowler's program director. Nominations must be submitted by February 1.

Be prepared to elaborate on why the candidate's leadership qualities, attitude, and helpfulness towards fellow youths and coaches make them eligible to receive this award.
