THE HALL

The Madison Area USBC Hall of Fame is the union of four Halls. Inductees from previous organizations have a designation after their name on the proceeding rolls, indicating the Hall of Fame of their original induction.

The members of the Madison Area USBC Hall of Fame being inducted tonight brings the membership total to 257.

MBA Madison Bowling Association
1972 - 2017 | 138 members*

MWBA Madison Women's Bowling Association
1999 - 2017 | 39 members

SWBA Southwest Wisconsin Bowling Association
1986 - 2008 | 51 members*

SWWBA Southwest Wisconsin Women's Bowling Association
1988 - 1997 | 19 members

Madison Area USBC Bowling Association
2018 - Present | 13 members

Norman L. Hanson is a member of both SWBA (1987) and MBA (1989).*

OBJECTIVE

This organization shall be dedicated to the recognition of the outstanding bowlers and dedicated servants of the Madison area who through their competitive skills, high personal standards and dedicated principles have enriched the general welfare, spirit, reputation, and progress of the sport of tenpin bowling.

AVA RODEFELD

A youth bowler who distinguishes themselves through their exemplary character, sportsmanship, and contributions to the sport of bowling.

These individuals are often prominent in leadership roles and inspirational to others by their volunteer work, community service, sports and activities participation, and bowling achievements.

STAR OF THE FUTURE

Ava's composure both on and off the lanes makes her an ideal candidate for this award. As an eight year member of the Prairie Lanes Youth Bowling program she found a true confidence in herself in league that translated into her success in tournaments and High School bowling.

Off the lanes she is a member of Future Business Leaders of America and Sun Prairie Envision, clocking many volunteer hours with both organizations and creating charity fundraising events. She is also involved in Sun Prairie Productions and Drama Club.

Her future is bright as she plans to study business administration and marketing after graduation.

LEO LINK

A youth bowler who distinguishes themselves through their exemplary character, sportsmanship, and contributions to the sport of bowling.

These individuals are often prominent in leadership roles and inspirational to others by their volunteer work, community service, sports and activities participation, and bowling achievements.

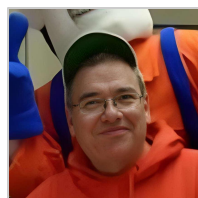

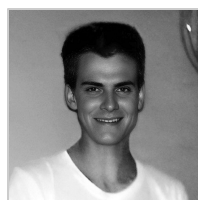

STAR OF THE FUTURE

Leo's strong leadership skills have led him to an outstanding resume on and off the lanes. In his eight years as a member of the Dream Lanes Youth Bowling program he has made a positive impact on all those around him in league, tournaments, and High School bowling.

Off the lanes he is a high honors student involved in many school activities such as baseball, orchestra, Tower TV, yearbook, and East Newspaper club. He has also impressively logged over 100 volunteer hours with various organizations including both Youth and Adult State Bowling Tournaments.

His future sees him at UW-Milwaukee where he is sure to make a statement majoring in film and journalism.

DENNIS BREUNIG

MERITORIOUS SERVICE

For half a century, Dennis Breunig has been the cornerstone of bowling in Sauk Prairie.

As a dedicated multi-decade league secretary for multiple leagues at Riviera Bowl in Sauk City, he has provided a crucial administrative foundation that allows the sport to flourish. His organizational skills and meticulous record keeping has ensured smooth league experiences for countless bowlers, many of whom have known only Dennis as their secretary in their bowling career.

His tenure in youth programs includes both coaching as well as ongoing fundraising efforts for the youth leagues and local high school teams, and demonstrates his commitment to nurturing new generations of bowlers.

He's captained and organized teams for numerous championship tournaments, both local and state-wide. Beyond the lanes, his weekly "Bowlin' at the Riv" blog keeps the community connected.

From the days of handwritten league standings to the management of modern digital systems, from youth to adult bowlers and everything in between - Dennis Breunig has committed unparalleled service and passion to our sport and has become an indispensable figure at Riviera Bowl and in the Madison Area USBC.

CASEY GIBNEY

DISTINGUISHED PERFORMANCE

Casey Gibney's remarkable career includes 18 consecutive years with a composite average over 220. His impressive scoring record includes 24 800 series with a high of 836, and 53 perfect games. He achieved the association high average of 241 in the 2014-15 season, the same year he made history with partner Nate Sime, bowling a 600 doubles game in the Madison Area USBC Open Championships.

A two-time association champion (2022-23, 2023-24 Team), he has consistently excelled in city and state tournaments as evidenced by his numerous top finishes. He led his team to second place in Team Scratch in 2014-15, and again in 2019-20. He secured an individual second place in Singles Scratch in 2016-17 with an outstanding 797 series.

Gibney shone in the 2020-21 Wisconsin State Open Championships, finishing 6th in All Events Scratch, while also leading his team to 3rd place in Team All Events Scratch. His success continued in 2022-23, securing 8th place in Doubles with a score of 1500.

Gibney's consistent performance across multiple leagues, centers, and high-stakes tournaments cements his status as one of the area's premier bowlers, leaving an indelible mark on the sport.

MAUREEN RICHMAN HARRIS

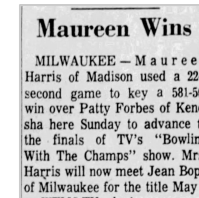

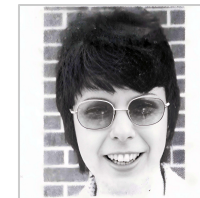

DISTINGUISHED PERFORMANCE

Maureen Richman Harris stands as a towering figure in Madison's bowling history, dominating the sport throughout the 1970s with unparalleled skill and consistency. Her remarkable career is highlighted by numerous achievements at local, state, national, and professional levels.

In the 1970-71 season, she repeatedly shattered the women's city series record, culminating in a 763 series that stood as a Madison record until 1989 and ranked third highest in the nation that year. Her 99-game average of 212 that season was the highest among three million WIBC members nationwide. The following year, her 210 average was second only to USBC Hall of Famer Patty Costello.

Harris became the second woman in Madison WBA history to bowl a perfect 300 game, achieving this feat on October 12, 1971, at Kuglitsch's Bowl in Milwaukee. Her consistency was legendary, setting a WIBC record with 22 consecutive 600 series, six of which exceeded 700.

Harris' tournament record is equally impressive. She claimed victory in the 1976 WIBC National Tournament's Classic Division. In 1972, she led her team to victory in the Wisconsin State WBA Tournament. Her individual accolades include runner-up finishes in the 1972 WIBC Queens and the 1974 PWBA Brunswick Red Crown Classic, the latter being the first PWBA event broadcast on network television.

She was named to the Bowlers Journal All-American team in 1971-72 (3rd team) and 1973-74 (2nd team), as well as the WIBC All-American team in 1973-74 (2nd team). In 1971, she was honored as the inaugural Pen and Mike Club Madison Sportswoman of the Year.

Maureen Richman Harris' enduring legacy in bowling is characterized by her consistent excellence, record-setting performances, and significant contributions to the sport at all levels
